1-day itinerary to cover the major places in Tokyo

Requirements:

Mr. Shivam wants to travel from Dubai to New York but has a 1-day layover in Japan. He has a short-term tourist visa for Japan and wants to explore a few major tourist spots in Tokyo during his brief stay. He has already booked his hotel.

SAMPLE Trip details:

 17 2nd November 2023	 Japan Airlines JAL893	 Hotel Gracery Asakusa	 Time difference - 4 hours
---	---	---	---

Notes:

 - The weather in Tokyo is expected to be delightful on November 2nd, 2023.

 - Upon reaching the airport, take a right from the main arrival gate and the most recommended choice would be to board the Keikyu line heading to Asakusa station.

 - While it's advisable to rely on cash in Japan, you have the option to obtain a "Welcome Suica" card at the JR East counter once you're in Japan airport.

 - Dress codes are quite flexible in Japan, allowing you the freedom to dress comfortably without any strict restrictions.

Places to visit:

- Shibuya Scramble Crossing - The busiest crossing in Tokyo where you can see people crossing roads from all directions.

Additional tips:

- Taking a taxi in Tokyo can be very expensive and the train stations might be far away from each other. Make sure that you pack comfortable shoes and a hand fan.
- Bring ready-to-eat food to Japan if you have any dietary restrictions as vegetarian/vegan food is not readily available in Japan.
- Electrolyte drinks are readily available in almost all the vending machines in Japan. They are useful in case of dehydration.
